ERS ARE ARRAIGNED

Robert Leigh May Be Returned To Prison as Parole Violator

Young men pleaded guilty in court Monday to separate station robberies, two being leniency, another held for parole violation, and the fourth sentenced to the Indiana state farm for one year.

Robert Leigh, 21, of Cincinnati, and Laverne Jessup, 17, of Matamoras, Pa., admitted the holdup and robbery of Jesse F. Young, proprietor of a filling station two miles from the city Feb. 8, Leigh being sentenced to custody of the sheriff for violation of his parole from the Indiana state farm, and Jessup released to his father on condition that he join the navy immediately.

In event Leigh is found to have only a short time to serve at the Ohio prison he will be sentenced in the local court. Judgment with withheld on Jessup during good behavior.

The robbery affidavit against Leigh and Jessup alleges they obtained $25 from Young in the holdup Feb. 8. Another affidavit charged Leigh with auto banditry to which he also pleaded guilty, judgment being withheld pending an investigation of his parole record.

Morris Bee, 19, living northeast of Greencastle, was sentenced to serve one year on the Indiana state farm for breaking into the Wilmer F. Albrecht filling station Dec. 31 and carrying away property valued at $30. Judgment was withheld on Ernest Adams, 16, who admitted the same offense and he was released during good behavior.

It was said to have been implicated in another store robbery at Greencastle a year ago, being shown mercy on that occasion after making good the storekeeper's loss.

Leigh and Jessup were apprehended by a state policeman south of Greencastle the same afternoon they passed the Young filling station and Bee and Adams were taken into custody last week following an investigation by city and county officials.

SENTENCE IS POSTPONED

Barnard Man Convicted By Jury In Putnam Circuit Court Last Week

Roy Riddle, 32, of Barnard, convicted in the Putnam circuit court last Friday of assault and battery with intent to commit a felony, gained a postponement of sentence Monday afternoon when attorneys filed a motion for arrest of judgment.

It was said the motion for arrest of judgment was filed to gain time while attorneys prepared a motion for a new trial which probably will be argued before Judge C. C. Gillen later this week.

The motion for an arrest of judgment alleged facts stated in the affidavit and each count thereof do not constitute a public offense under laws of the state of Indiana. The motion was filed by attorneys Clifford R. Dickerson and F. S. Hamilton.

Riddle was convicted last Friday on the first count of an affidavit in three counts charging him with assault and battery with intent to kill, assault and battery with intent to rob, and inflicting an injury in a robbery attempt.

The first count on which he was convicted provides for a penalty of one to ten years in prison. Sentence, however, was postponed by Judge Gillen to give attorneys for Riddle an opportunity to file motions before judgment was passed.

Riddle was charged with assaulting C. B. Jarvis, Barnard storekeeper, last Dec. 4.

COORDINATOR POST OFFERED GEO. L. BERRY

POSITION IS IMPORTANT IN PRESIDENT'S NEW DEAL MACHINERY

ROSE FROM LABOR RANKS

First Authentic Information On Huge Work Relief Fund Obtained By United Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, (UP)—The first authentic information on President Roosevelt's plans for work-relief fund, showing he intended to select a coordinator and to operate it through five officials, was obtained today by the United Press.

Mr. Roosevelt, it was learned, has offered the post of coordinator to George L. Berry, who came up from the ranks of organized labor to assume an important position in the new deal's recovery machinery. Berry is not an NRA division administrator.

The work relief organization has been worked out by the president after considerable thought and close attention to all the details involved in his determination to get the government out of "this business of relief."

President Roosevelt plans to administer the relief fund through a board of which he himself is to be chairman. The other members are to be Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes, Administrator Harry Hopkins of the FERA, Administrator James A. Moffett of the FHA, Administrator Arthur E. Morgan of the Tennessee Valley Authority, and Director Robert Fechner of the CCC.

In addition to the supervisory board, which Mr. Roosevelt believes should be called the works board, there will be a coordinator and a secretary.

While no definite selection of a secretary has been made it has been believed by some that Admiral C. J. Peoples, who aided in preparation of the work program, might be offered the job.

Berry is president of the International Pressman's Union and a leading figure in the American Federation of Labor.

The coordinator—key position in the work relief program—will be the president's principal agent in carrying out the administration's purpose of taking 3,500,000 persons off the relief rolls and putting them back to work.

Berry, it was understood, has not definitely decided whether to undertake the task.

By utilizing the existing agencies as represented by the Ickes-Hopkins-Moffett-Morgan-Fletcher board, the president will have the benefit of experience, organization and a wide scope of opportunity.

GOVERNOR MOEUR OF ARIZONA GETS BLACK EYE IN FIGHT

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 12, (UP)—Arthur Crowell, 44, who waited 20 years for a "chance to sock a governor," got his chance last night and socked hard. Today Governor B. R. Moer, who socked right back, had a black eye.

Crowell, who said he was a "cattleman without any cattle," got a badly cut lip and a night in jail for indulging his desire to work over a state executive. No reason for the fight has been advanced.

Governor Moer and Crowell met in the lobby of a Phoenix hotel. They argued and suddenly Crowell lashed out with his right. Witnesses said it was a roundhouse swing, but it was good enough for it caught his excellency flush on the eye and down he went.

Without waiting for a count the governor bounded to his feet and rushed Crowell, shooting a left that crashed against his mouth and brought a spurt of blood.

Before another blow could be started the men were separated. Police took Crowell away and Governor Moer went home to dress the mouse that was forming beneath his eye.

ONE-MAN CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (UP)—President Roosevelt was revealed in authoritative quarters today as preparing to return NRA to one-man control.

Functioning of the seven-man administrative board which took over the recovery unit in October from administrator Hugh S. Johnson has been beset with difficulties. It has been virtually impossible to compose the widely varying viewpoints of members.

Looking forward to extension of the recovery act by congress for a two-year period after next June 16, the President was reported planning to put administrative authority again in one man's hands, as in days of General Johnson. To support the administrator, an advisory board would be set up with three-party representation, industry, labor and the consumer.

A factor in this change of authority is the impending departure of several members of the present board. None of them appeared in line for the administratorship.

JURY MAY GET BRUNO'S CASE BY NIGHTFALL

WILENTZ ATTACKS DRAMATIC PLEA MADE BY ATTORNEYS FOR HAUPTMANN

NATION AWAITING VERDICT

Suspect In Lindbergh Baby Kidnaping May Know Fate By Midnight.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 12 (UP)—Justice Thomas W. Trenchard told the United Press today he had not yet decided whether he would charge the jury late today after completion of Attorney-general David T. Wilentz' summation, or wait until tomorrow morning.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 12 (UP)—Attorney General David T. Wilentz wrote the final chapter of the state of New Jersey against Bruno Richard Hauptmann today, delivering his devastating summation of the reasons why the state believes the Bronx carpenter should go to the electric chair.

Wilentz, sarcastic, and cold, was prepared to rip to pieces the impassioned argument of his opponent, Edward J. Reilly, who yesterday ran the gamut from tears to rage in a desperate attempt to prove his client was "framed" by police for the murder of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

It was possible that before midnight Hauptmann will know his fate. If Wilentz finishes soon after noon Justice Thomas Trenchard immediately will charge the jury. If Wilentz takes most of the day, Trenchard will instruct the jury tomorrow morning.

Wilentz first planned to take only three and one-half hours, but last night decided on more. He will demand the death penalty.

Wilentz was in a favorable position. Lawyers know that the last phrases of a summation or a charge to the jury, very often remain indelibly imprinted on their minds.

Reilly, in his summation, was working against the disadvantage of knowing his every statement would be challenged by the attorney general.

CAPT. LORD AND CREW REFUSE TO ABANDON SHIP

Aboard the Schooner Seth Parker, in the South Seas, by Radio to the United Press, Feb. 1, (UP)—Capt. Phillips Lord and four of his crew refused today to abandon the schooner Seth Parker in the South Pacific in the face of a renewal of the tropical storms which since Feb. 5, have lashed the four-masted round-the-world ship.

Those who elected to remain aboard with the captain when the British warship Australia came to our rescue were Carry Sweeney, radio engineer of the National Broadcasting company, and seamen Flink, Payes and Reuschele.

The other nine members of the crew, most of them young college boys from New York and New England, were taken aboard the Australia last night.

Two hours after the rescue a new squall struck the battered schooner, whose rigging had been torn away in gales of hurricane force Sunday night.

The weather was far from encouraging but Lord and his four companions choose to stay aboard pending the arrival of the U. S. navy collier Ontario from Pago Pago, Samoa.

The collier is expected to reach us Thursday night. The naval base she left Monday morning is about 500 to 600 miles from this corner of the South Seas in which we were struck by severe storms.

Our troubles began Feb. 5 when we were caught in a tropical gale. We tried to run it unsuccessfully for six days.

In battling the storm our rigging was carried away. The wooden boat sprung leaks. Mountainous seas poured over our decks. With the seas becoming higher and the wind at gale force Captain Lord decided to send a distress call Feb. 10.

The battleship Australia, with the Duke of Gloucester, son of King George aboard, answered our call.

She reached us last night and took off nine members of the crew, the younger men for whose safety Capt. Lord had been apprehensive. They had joined us in New York and New England ports in a spirit of adventure. The captain did not wish to endanger their lives.

We have aboard radio broadcasting equipment of considerable value. It was to protect this and also to save his ship that Lord decided to wait for the Ontario which will tow us to Pago Pago, the U. S. naval base at Tutuila, Samoa.

THOUSANDS VISIT LINCOLN SHRINE AT SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 12, (UP)—Abraham Lincoln lived again in memory today as notables gathered at Lincoln shrines here and throughout central Illinois to pay tribute to the gangling store clerk who became president of the United States.

Ceremonies today—the 126th anniversary of his birth—were held at the emancipator's tomb in Oak Ridge where Lincoln was eulogized in speeches and honored in memory by floral wreaths, including one bearing the card of President Roosevelt.

Thousands visited the old Lincoln homestead, near the business district of the city, in which Lincoln resided at the time he was elected president. Others made pilgrimages to Old Salem to visit the village where Lincoln served as a postmaster before he became a country lawyer who rode on horseback around a rough circuit. The village, recently restored by the state, represents as nearly as possible the frontier village as it was in Lincoln's day.

Frank N. Belgrano, "national commander of the American Legion, headed the list of speakers at Lincoln's tomb in Oak Ridge cemetery. He joined a small group of Civil war veterans in extolling Lincoln, declaring that "Washington founded our nation and Lincoln saved it."

Belgrano chose the occasion to war against the spread of "communism" in the nation, saying that if Lincoln lived "he would be far less concerned about our momentary lack of golden prosperity than about a greater danger in the communistic army that has invaded our land."

Two foreign ambassadors and a Canadian educator voiced tributes of their country at public memorial services here last night.

Signor Augusto Rosso, Italian ambassador, said that Lincoln's fight for freedom of the slaves was fought on "behalf of the oppressed of all nations."

Japanese Ambassador Saito likened Lincoln to Japan's hero of the Japanese-Russian war, saying that Lincoln had the courage to send great force against the south as did Nogi direct "charge after charge" to bring about the downfall of Port Arthur.

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—Oregon's first year in the retail liquor business grossed $3,579,447, reported the liquor control commission. The state liquor stores turned over approximately $1,100,000 to unemployment relief.

Charity Tilt At H. S. Gym Tonight

The Greencastle Fire Chiefs will clash with the Rockville Texaco's tonight at 8 o'clock in the local high school gymnasium. Part of the proceeds will be turned over to the hot lunch project.

An interesting curtain raiser is also planned at 7 p. m. when the Greencastle and Brazil junior high quintets tangle.

The Rockville and Greencastle semi-pro basketball squads met recently and the locals emerged the winner by a close margin. Consequently another thrilling encounter is indicated this evening.

The charity tilt is being sponsored by the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and it is hoped that a good sized crowd will attend.

AT THE THEATERS

"Bright Eyes," featuring Shirley Temple and James Dunn, will be seen for the last times tonight at the Vancastle theater. A Popeye cartoon and news reel complete the program.

Barbara Stanwyck is starred in "A Lost Lady," at the Granada theater tonight. The supporting cast includes Ricardo Cortez, Frank Morgan, Lyle Talbot and Phillip Reed.

DEPAUW RHINIES WIN FROM STATE CAGERS

Indiana State's frosh lost a hard fought curtain raiser to the DePauw Rhinies at the State Gym Monday night 28 to 20. With all visiting performers finding the net with regularity and at the same time holding down the Sycamors' chances to snoot, DePauw grabbed a 17 to 8 lead at the half and continued to keep in front the rest of the way, although State rallied and drew close in the last half. Both coaches used nearly all of the players they had on the bench. Summary:

Four western Indiana high school basketball quintets, one each from Tippecanoe and Putnam counties and two from Montgomery county, will play a double-header at the Wabash college gymnasium Saturday night, Feb. 16, according to an announcement made Wednesday.

Roachdale and Linden are carded to battle in the first contest of the bargain bill at 7:30 o'clock, followed by Wingate tangling with Clarks Hill an hour later. All four teams are considered top-notchers in their respective counties.

Linden at present is leading the Montgomery county pack in games won and lost and Wingate is the 1935 county tourney champion. Roachdale is believed to be Greencastle's most serious threat in the Putnam county sectional and Clarks Hill has lost only two games all season.

Wednesday night the Gold and Blue hardwooders will tangle the lightning-like Tiger Cubs from Greencastle and Friday will take on Coach Fuzzy Vandivier's Grizzly Cubs from Franklin.

Considerably encouraged over their showing against Coach Walter Skelton's club Saturday night, the local netmen went about their chores during Monday's practice displaying a better spirit than they have shown for some time. The Athenians defeated Danville, 28 to 17.

Due to the intense rivalry between Crawfordville and Greencastle, local school officials are expecting one of the largest crowds of the season to witness Wednesday's tilt. In two previous games played this year, the Tiger Cubs have both times nosed out the locals.

Many Crawfordville fans are recalling the thrilling battle staged by the two quintets last season when the Athenians emerged on top after a hectic battle by only one point, 25 to 24.—Crawfordsville Journal.

(Brazil Times)

Greencastle did a mighty good job of basketballing Friday night to double the score on Martinsville at this time of the year. Bee rang up three baskets and Cartwright two. The Tiger Cubs will be plenty tough when the Red Devils go to call on 'em Tuesday next week. Put the rubber sides on your gym, Greencastle.

Wiley seems to be getting tired of seeing his hound kicked around. The Red Streaks turned on Honey Creek, Wabash Valley finalists, to win 29-25, making twelve baskets to Honey Creek's eight. We have a hunch that this Saturday night affair is going to be a real scrap.

Brazil players home from Jeffersonville are somewhat disgusted with themselves for not beating the big team. It is their opinion that Jeff will get cut off before they reach the state championship. They appear no tougher than the average top-notch team which Brazil has been playing this season.

Clinton defeated Attica at Clinton, 31 to 30, to loom as a threat in the way of Greencastle's annual journey to the fieldhouse. Once upon a time Clinton did defeat Greencastle.

In The Legislature

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 12, (UP)—The state NRA bill which has passed the Indiana house and is now in the senate has the politicians rocking on their heels.

It has the unqualified backing of Governor Paul V. McNutt and the average Democratic solon is under the impression that "somebody pretty high up down at Washington," is also behind it.

Representative John Napier Dyer, Dem., of Vincennes, author of the bill, says it is President Roosevelt. Others, probably in a lesser position to know, say it is "Boss" James A. Farley. According to word from Washington, the national emergency council, of which Donald R. Richberg is head, has had no "correspondence from Indiana on this subject." But Richberg's offices do not say whether or not Indiana had had any correspondence from Washington "on the subject."

There are Democratic politicians who will tell you frankly that it would be a political three-strike to pass such controversial legislation when "Washington, itself, is letting the NRA get the death rattle in its throat."

These gentlemen who look at legislation only from the standpoint of votes at the polls, think a state NRA law might be a poor issue in 1936.

On the other hand, a shrewd Republican politician points out that "a state NRA law would sure be a sweet thing for the Democrats from a patronage standpoint and for whipping business into line before an election."

Meanwhile, Indiana's 50 senators are finding their desks piled high with telegrams both endorsing and damning the bill. Even the big comfortable leather desk chairs they occupy can not pacify their uneasiness over how to vote when the bill is finally handed down for passage.

The NRA bill got off to a bad start when the original version was amended in committee to give the governor price-fixing powers. The governor later disclaimed all knowledge of this grant of power and it was stricken from the measure.

As the bill now reads it is probably what the NRA will resolve itself into if it is to survive—a law for the enforcement of trade agreements. England has had such agencies for 200 years, Germany for 20. Governor McNutt, who would like to see the bill become a law because it is part of the Roosevelt "new deal" program, is getting the heat from both ends. There are any number of Indiana business concerns who would really like to see a state NRA law.

One prominent house Republican, who is on a code committee, found that out. He voted against the bill when it was up for passage and has heard plenty since from the other members of his industry. They want the NRA.

On the Republican side of the house sits Roy J. Harrison of Attica, who is 100 per cent for the $1.50 tax levy limitation law. Few bills have been fought out on the floor that Harrison has not raised the issue of "What will this do to the $1.50 law?"

When the Nicholson bill strengthening the maternity home and hospital law was up for passage yesterday, Speaker Edward Stein saw Harrison attempting to get the floor.

"If you want to know what this bill will do to the $1.50 law, I can tell you," Stein said. "It won't do a thing."

Two of the most solemn appearing members of the house are the two floor leaders—Frank G. Thompson who does the leg work for the Democrats and James M. Knapp, former G. O. P. speaker of the house. Both are bald-headed.

When the house was in the heat of a deadly serious battle yesterday which resulted in the bill to increase barbers' license fees being killed, Knapp and Thompson were seen with their heads together.

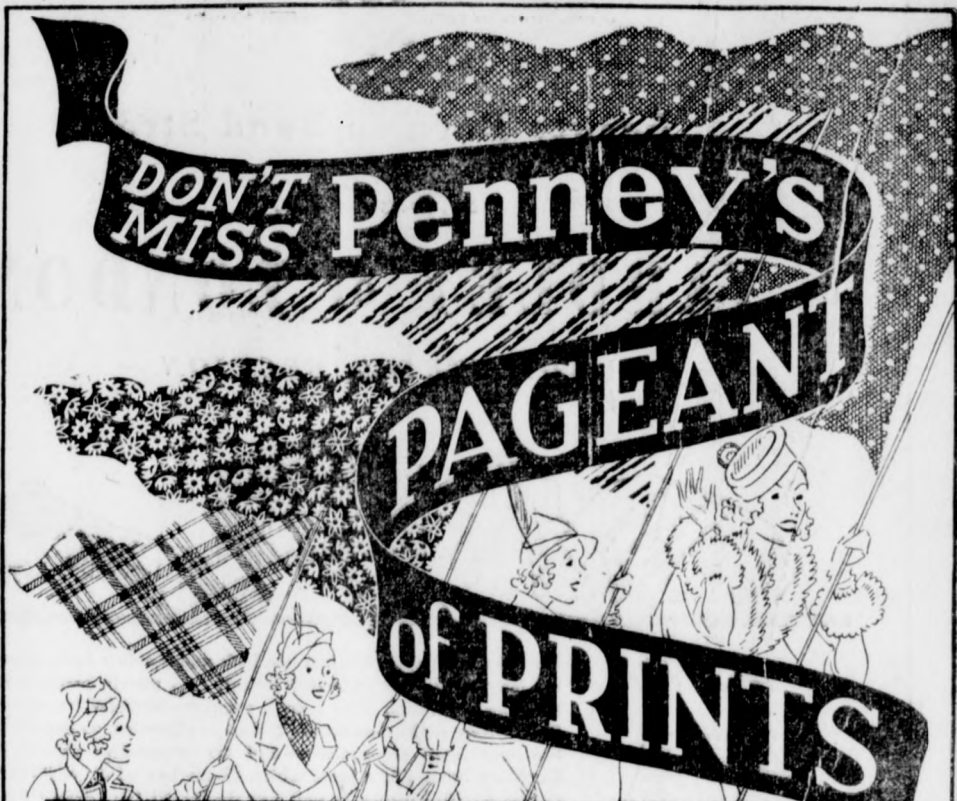

"The majority and minority floor leaders have just conferred," Knapp announced, interrupting debate. The embattled house hushed into silence thinking that some sort of a compromise to save the bill had been reached.

"What Frank and I want to know," said Knapp, "is what this bill will do to the price of haircuts?"

BOYS SHOOT RIFLE AT BELL TO HEAR IT RING

ELYRIA, O., (UP)—A new rifle landed three 16 year old Ridgeville, O., boys in the county jail here for questioning after their village's fire siren had been put out of commission.

Ridgeville's volunteer firemen discovered the trouble when they assembled for practice. When it was time for the fire siren to sound there was no noise. The firemen hastily climbed ladders to the belfry. There they found a handful of lead shots which had been fired against
